NIGHT EDITION

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1903.

"TALENT" HARD HIT

PRICE ONE CENT.

ODELL ONCE MORE WILL TRY TO PLACATE

Roosevelt Is Alarmed at the Condition of the Republican Machines in the State and City and Rushes Odell On to Try to Patch Up Peace.

PLATT, HE DOES REALLY SEEM TO BE PETERING OUT Little Jack Horner, with 15 to 1

Most of the City G. O. P. District Leaders Hold State or Federal Jobs, and This Fact Practically Assures Their Support for Roosevelt-Odell Coalition

As a result of the worry and alarm which President Roosevelt feels over the situation in this State and city the warring Odell and Platt factions have agreed to hold another conference here. This step has been taken, it is will be the complete triumph of Gov. Odell as the dictator not only of the [2] 1. Connover (7 to 2) 2, Billy State but of the New York County machine.

The Governor leaves for this city to-night. So will Col. George W Dunn, Chairman of the State Republican Committee. It is urgent business

M. Linn Bruce, Chairman of the County Committee, had made all arangements to leave for Washington to-day to see President Roosevelt in behalf of the Platt faction in the county machine but for some unexplained reason he remained over. It was announced that he wanted to have a talk with Senator Platt before he started. Then came the announcement that Col. Dunn and Gov. Odell were coming to town, followed by the report that both the Governor and Col. Dum would be present at the Platt-Bruce concange about some details in the party and to assure us as friends of both Senator Platt and himself that there was absolute harmony in the party throughout the State. We all unite on throughout the State. We all unite on the party throughout the State.

why Gov. Odell appears range about some details in the party o have the upper hand in New York County is because he has the backing of President Roosevelt, and because representative Republican eader in New York County holds either Federal or State job. They are removable from their positions at the Won't Lose Jobs for Platt.

these men would place their places in than there is to-day."

jebpardy for the purpose of obliging Governor Wants to Stir 'Em Up. enator Platt, even though his influ-Strassbourger, of the Thirty-first District, is tax commissioner. William Henkel, leader of the Eighteehth District, is a United States marshal; Cornelius Van Cott, leader of the Washington Square district, is Postmaster, and Jastrow Alexander, another leader, is State Inspector of Gas Meters.

Fardinand Eidman, leader of the Tenth, is Internal Revenue Collector, and J. P. Windolph, of the Eleventh, is Aqueduct Commissioner, G. W. Wap-Strassbourger, of the Thirty-first District, is tax commissioner. William Henkel, leader of the Elighteenth District, is a United States marshal; Cor-

Aqueduct Commissioner, G. W. Wanamaker, of the Fifteenth, has the contract for building the new Custom House; J. H. Gunner, of he Twentyeighth, is a Port Wardens Alexander T. Mason, of the Twenty-ninth, is a CHICAGO. Dec. I.—Major Charles E. To Civil-Service Commissioner, and Frank Kilbourne, U. S. A., paymaster of the is Raymond, of the Thirty-third, has a Department of Dakota, died on a Chi-good job in the Custom-House. W. H. cago, Milwaukee and St Paul train as it Ten Eyck, of the Thirty-fourth, is an neared Chicago. He had been very ill Aqueduct Commissioner, and A. W. Cooley, of the annexed district, was recently appointed by President Roosevelt to be United States Chyll-Service Commissioner at a salary of $7.000 a year. This was the first position of national importance ever held by Mr.

All Harmony, Says Henkel.

United States Marshal William Henkel, leader of the Eighteenth Dis-trict, was one of those who were summoned to Albany by the Governor. te-day, "at the invitation of Gov. Odell. E. H. Healy, of the Thirty-fifth was with me. We spent two hours and a half in the Executive Chamber chat-ting and smoking with the Governor. "The Governor sent for us to ar-

Princess Tulane Starts "Regulars" Off Badly by Capturing the Opening Dash at Wash ington at Odds of 10 to 1.

CONKLING AT 7 TO 1 RUNS AWAY WITH FOURTH.

Against Him, Beats 4 to 5 Favorite Allista in First at New Orleans.

THE WINNERS.

FIRST RACE-Princess Tulane (10 o 1) 1, Gloriosa (10 to 1) 2, Un-

SECOND RACE-Graziallo (3 to 1) 1, Silver Dream (12 to 1) 2,

FOURTH RACE-Conkling (7 to 1) 1, Gananogue (13 to 5) 2, Colleen

SIXTH RACE-Wire In (9 to 1)

Fine weather, a fairly good crowd and events. The second race, having at the track, and the closing

Seven furlongs. Starters, wats. . jockeys. St. Hif. Fin. Senator Platt. even though his influence placed most of them where they are. If the alliance between the Governor and the President is an aggressive alliance—and all agree that it appears to be so—it behooves the office-holding district leaders to get into line.

Leader William Halpin, who went to Arbany to see the Governor yesterday, but I believe his purpose is to sit them up, and to stir them up is the Governor's right in the interests of the Republican party."

A well-informed Republican party."

A well-informed Republican said to ap Evening World reporter this afternoon:

"I have been watching with interest the efforts of the Governor to shake up the district leaders in this city. I don't he followed was done at the conference in Albany vesterday, but I believe his purpose is to sit them up, and to stir them up is the Governor's right in the interests of the Republican party."

A well-informed Republican party."

A well-informed Republican said to ap Evening World reporter this afternoon:

"I have been watching with interest the efforts of the Governor to shake up the district leaders in this city. I don't be the confidence of the confidence of the confidence of the confidence of the surface over the condition of affairs, not only in the city but in the State. The result of the condition of affairs, not only in the city enraged him. and the lamination of the condition of affairs, not only in the city enraged him. Gov. Odell give and Orange died in the run home. Princess Tulane of the condition of a finity and the lamination of the condition of affairs, not only in the city enraged him. Gov. Odell give and Orange died in the run home. Princess Tulane of the condition of a finity and the lamination of the condition of a finity and the lamination of the condition of a finity and the lamination of the condition of a finity and the lamination of the condition o

Graziallo. 18: Wonderly 1 12 15 3 1
Sliver Dream. 107. Romanell 5. 28: 22 12 4
Sais. 110. Blake: 3 6 31 30 8
Feter Paul. 107. Calleban 2 5 4 12 3
Harangue. 110. Redfern 6 4 5 9-2 6-5
Lord of the Valley. 110. 4 31 6.3 13-40 1-2
Start good. Wgb driving. Time—1.21 2-5.
Graziolla cut out the running, followed by Peter Paul. Silver Dream and Harangue in close order. They held this order to the stretch, where Silver Dream closed on Graziolla and in a hot drive won by a head, Silver Dream was three lengths in front of Sais. The favorite. Lord of the Valley, ran a bad race, never being grominent.

The match race between Alforten and Tokulon has been declared off. The filly is on the sick list.

THIRD RACE.

Steeplechase, about two, and a half mile Starters, wats, lockeys, St. Hif. Fin. Str. Pl.

FAVORITES LOSE AT BENNINGS RUNAWAY TEAM HURTS WOMEN

A team driven by John O'Rourke, of No. 374 East Thirty-first street, ran away this afternoon at Twenty-third street and riest avenue and crashed into a Belt line car, throwing it off the Crack. Mrs. Tanzer, No. 817 Fifth street, and Mrs. Goldstein, of Avenue C and Second street, were thrown from their seats and injured. They were sent home.

LATE RESULTS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Fourth Race-Potheen 1, Dan McKenna 2, Air Light 3. Fifth Race-Trocadero 1, Past 2, Medal 3. Sixth Race-Rainland 1, Dutiful 2, Falerian 3.

TWO PAINTERS FALL THIRTY FEET.

Nathan Peitz, of No. 117 Orchard street, and Henry Muller, f No. 207 St. Ann's avenue, while painting the front of Hupfel's brewery, Eagle avenue and One Hundred and Sixty-first street, Bronx, fell thirty feet to the ground this afternoon, the ropes at one end of the scaffold having broken. They were taken unconscious to Lincoln Hospital.

M. Theo. 103. Burns. 3 4 6 20 R
Erlarthope, 105. Creamer 7 8 8 26 8
Tol San. 102. O'Brien, 8 9 9 15 6
Start poor, Won ceasily.
Coukling got away with a flying break, made all the running and won easily by two lengths from Gananogue, who was off last and made up a lot of ground. Collect Bawn was third, two lengths away.

FIFTH RACE. Princelet, 105.Mulhollan III 2 10 000 Margraviate, 106.Breeden 10 11 100 59.
Albany Girl, 10. Onley, 12 12 12 100 40.
Start fair, Woh handily. Time—1.44.
All Gold and Arden raced head and head to the stretch, followed by Cottage Maid and Miladi Love. In the stretch

SIXTH RACE.

Wire In, 93, Pieratt. 5 2 1 15 9 Carbuncle, 128, Redfern 2 4 24 6.5 Sam Craig, 197, Burns, 4 31 31 7-2 Mrs, Frank Foster, 90, Olandt *Lady Potentate, 100, 3 12 4 8 *Callahan al. 120, De za 6 5 6 10 *D. of Kendal. 120, De za 6 5 6 10 *Circus, 100, Taylor, 8 8 7 6 Hinteelf, 98, Creamer, 1 7 8 30 Start good, Won driving, Time—2.05, *Coupled.

SECOND RACE-Julia Junkin (3 to 1) 1. Hickory Corners (12 to 1) 2, Then Costa Said He Would Mayor Johnson 3.

THIRD RACE-Imp Mad Mullah (5 tien 3

RACE TRACK, NEW ORLEANS, Dec and the water kept coming the rest of the day. The track received a thorough soaking and had a sloppy surface when the horses were called to the post for the first race. The inclement weather kept the attendance down to the "regu FIRST RACE.

Five furiones; purse $400: for all ages.
Starters wgts. jockeys. St. Hif. Fin.
Str. Pl.
ittile Jack Horner, 121, 222 145, 15

SECOND RACE.

Mail Mullah 97.Robblins 6 224 114 5 5 Dulican 102, Gannon 3 14 24 15 Exclamation 110 Melszon 8 33 35 2-5 King Cesses 97. Phillips 1 6 42 15 Kingsland, 97. Livingston 4 54 5 50 Caybor, 107. Minder, 11 76 61 60 Cardona, 107 by F. Dean 2 41 75 30 Delmons 97. Wiley 10 88 82 100 Bountful, 98 Lindsey, 9 101 98 6 8 Sin Puriative, 97. Howell 7 11 103 100 Fure Favor, 107. Doegan 5 96 11 50 Siart gool. Won driving, Time—0.57 Exclamation, Looked 5 00 11 25 25 Callahan

Callah

SENTENCED FOR CONTEMPT.

About His Race Bet. Edward J. Costa, who was given unti-oon to-day to answer questions be fore the Brooklyn Grand Jury, appeared to 1) , Dungan (15 to 1) 2, Exclama- and fill refused to answer. Then he was taken before Justice Crane and the atter sentenced him to jail for thirty lays for contempt of court. While Costa was being led away he said he would tell all he knew. Justice

Crane said that if District-Attorney Clarke reported to him that he had answered the questions of the Grand Jury satisfactorily he would revoke the

NO TRACE OF A AT 2 RACE TRACKS $38,000 ESTATE

Wealthy Woman Complains to District-Attorney that Her Agent Has Not Rendered Satisfactory Accounting.

APPLIES FOR AND GETS WARRANT FOR ARREST

Estate of $256,000 Involved in the Proceedings-Three of the Heirs Demand Their Part of It.

warrant. The complainant is Mrs Mary Louise Jex, the widow of William Jex, who died seven years ago, leaving an estate valued, it is said, at $256,000. to Assistant District-Attorney Krotel and as such was empowered to convert tain an intererst and when her fou hildren reached the age of twenty-five she was to divide the remainder equally

Three of the children have reached the

Building, Mr. Krotel went with her t

Is There a Settlement?

Just then a visitor was anfiounceda hurrled visitor. He held a short, exited conference with Mr. Greene and went away. Then Mr. Greene refused to discuss the matter any further. He ettlement had reached him-even sugrested that there might have been a misunderstanding

The Jex estate came into public netice last May. Mr. Jex, who was a commission merchant, died in Palisades, commission merchant, died in Palisades, Rockland County, and papers of administration were issued to his widow by the Surrogate of that county. There appeared before the Surrogate last May Mrs. Ida C. Bayne, of Staten Island, eldest daughter of Mrs. Jex. She asked for an indictment and a warrant for the arrest of her mother on a charge of illegally withhoolding the shares of the state belonging to the children. Mrs. Jex. she alleged had disappeared. The matter was allowed to drop at that time.

Mrs. Jex lives at No. 613 East One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, with a married daughter, Mrs. Laura Schoolmaker.

STEEL TRUST READY FOR CUT

Retrenchment Considered at Meeting of Directors To-Day. Directors of the United States Stee Corporation held a meeting to-day. was the regular monthly meeting. was said that there would be no state ment issued as to the retrenchmer plans or the outlook. It is understood that the net earnings for the month of mates, though the exact figures could $7,500,000.

that it will start the new year with present situation. The cut will be about

TICKET OFFICE

Mysteriously Slip Into the Lackawanna Station at Morristown, N. J., During the Temporary Absence of the Agent and Get Away with the Money Without Having Been Seen.

BELIEVED TO BE SAME THIEVES WHO ROBBED THE TOWERMEN.

They Found an Unusual Sum on Hand Because Commuters Had To-Day Purchased and Paid Agent Flynn for Their Railroad Tickets for the Month of December.

skawanna & Western Railroad station in Morristown, N. J. out New Jersey and Pennsylvania are believed to have committed this theft.

The robbery w s most mysterious. Ticket Agent Thomas J. Flynn left

Flynn ran to ie station platform and looked in every direct was in sight, nor had any one been seen loitering in the vicinity of the station. The agent quickly communicated with Bloomfield Philhower. the Morristown agent of the railroad, and the police were called in. They notified the police of all the surrounding towns and the police of New

"I cannot understand the robbery," said Mr. Philhower. "The re hat all of this cash was in hand to-day was that it is the first of the m and commuters have been buying tickets all day. I can't say exactly mount was taken, but it was not less than $5,000.

According to Flynn, he only went a few steps here was no one in sight, and he left the cash drawer and safe open, both He carofully closed the door leading to the private room though he did not think this necessary at the time, so deserted was the the vicinity of the station.

Flynn is bonded for $3,000, and will be responsible for this ar oss. It is not known at this time what the railroad company will do to-

"It is this way," he said. "If we cannot recover this money the children of OPERATOR AT GLEN MOORE IS HELD UP BY FOUR MEN.

nia and held up and robbed other oper ators along the Reading Railroad, from all accounts have crossed into New Jer that the operator at Glen Moore, three | and a couple of constables and a rail-miles from Trenton, was attacked on | and a couple of constables and a rail-road watchman or two were put aboard Sunday morning after having flashed a where there are switches, is open all the night. De Haven was in the tower on Sunday morning when a freight bound for Jersey City passed. As it bound for Jersey City passed. As it slowed down four men slid off the tops of the cars and down the ladders.

At first glance De Haven, who was standing in the doorway, thought they were railroad men. He knew of no "Where's the other stuff?" demanded one. of the cars and down the ladders.

would ever send. For what he knew it might be his last. The despatcher's office answered that help would be sent. glance at the train sheet showed that coal train was due at Glen Moore in ive minutes, and at the same time orlers were sent into the yard for a live

With a posse clinging to the footbo to throw her wide open for Glen Moore. In the station at GlenMoore De Haven In the station at Giermoore send his had no more time than to send his had no more time than to send his message and read the one that came message and read the one that came message and read the one that came back that help would be rushed and coal train was in the block. The next instant there was a crash at the door, it trembled. Then another crash, cracking, a splintering, and the door came in. Four Men Attack Operator.

In the doorway stood four men with masks and revolvers. De Haven grab-bed a chair.

standing in the doorway, thought they were railroad men. He knew of no reason why four men should leave the train there, as there were no orders to pick up anything.

Signal Lamp Reveals Black Mask.

By the flash of the signal lamp that swung about as the train went out of the block, De Haven saw a black mask. Without waiting an instant, he closed and locked the door, then threw two chairs against it. His hand was on the key in an instant and he called the train despatcher at Trenton, ticking off rapidly, but at the same time so clearly that all in the despatcher's office bounded to their feet:

"I am threatened with attack by robbers. Send help at once.

"DE HAVEN."

For all those in the office could tell it might be the last message De Haven

A NEW NOVEMBER RECORD FOR THE WORLD.

ARMY OFFICER DIES ON TRAIN

Being Taken Home.

and was on his way to his home, in

WEATHER FORECAST!

Forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 8 P. M. Wednesday for New York City and vicinity: Fair to-night; Wednesday partly cloudy; light to fresh west-

COPIES A DAY SOLD IN NEW YORK CITY ONLY* (Excluding All Country Subscriptions and Sales) During November. Gain over last year. 31,933 SURPASSES ALL PREVIOUS NOVEMBER RECORDS OF THE WORLD.

3,9121 COLUMNS OF PAID ADVERTISEMENTS Published in November in the Morning and Evening World. Gain 397% columns over 1902.